Penalty Infringement Notice Review Policy Attachment E – PIN withdrawal request form

The City may consider withdrawal of a PIN if you can demonstrate any of the following occurred at the time of offence:

- Your vehicle broke down and you were unable to move it to a legal position.
- You were involved in a medical emergency.
- You were issued the PIN in error.
- You were issued a PIN as the registered owner of the vehicle that, at the time of the offence, the vehicle had been sold or stolen, or was under the (permitted) control of another person.
- You were issued the PIN as the registered owner of land, and you were not at the time of the offence the registered owner of the land.
- Regulatory signs had been removed or damaged.

PINs will not be withdrawn for the following reasons:

- Financial hardship (if unable to pay the infringement then an application can be made for a payment plan).
- Being unaware of the law or not seeing a sign.
- Disagreeing with the law. You may feel the offence for which the infringement notice has been issued is trivial or did not cause a problem to anyone.

Parking offences

- Running out of petrol.
- Entering the wrong bay number (or other user error) when paying for parking.
- Appointment was delayed.
- Stopped in a restricted zone briefly.

Animal registration offences

- Forgot to pay registration fee.
- Payment was lost in the mail.

Animal management offences

- Forgot to take plastic bag for dog droppings.
- Dog was under control despite not being on leash.
- Dog was only wandering for a few minutes.

Littering offences

- Banana skin was thrown into bush where it will decompose.
- Was going to pick it up later.

Plumbing and Drainage offences

- Didn't know a Plumbing and Drainage permit was required.
- Have now/since complied with the notice e.g. obtained a Plumbing and Drainage permit.
- Have remedied the non-complying Plumbing and Drainage work and it now complies with the applicable standards.

Development Compliance offences

- I didn't know a development permit was required.
- I have now/since complied with the notice e.g. obtained a development permit.
- I have remedied the non-complying aspects of the pool fence and it now complies with the applicable standards.
