Information Collection Notice:

Council of the City of Gold Coast ("Council") is collecting your personal information for the purpose of promoting Seniors Week and related activities and events. Your participation is voluntary and constitutes your acceptance of these terms. The personal information that you provide will be used by authorised Council officers to produce the Seniors Week Calendar, and may be published in the Calendar. The Calendar will be available in print from Council locations, on Council's website and through other promotional avenues.

Your information will be stored securely and except as described above, will not be given to any other person or agency unless you have given us permission or we are required by law. If after you have provided your personal information to Council, you decide that you no longer wish Council to use it, upon receiving your notice, Council will to the extent possible, cease using and holding your personal information, noting that it may not be possible to cease the use of such information where it appears in some pre-printed and published material.
